In 2010, Samuel earned the Certified Financial Planner[™] designation (CFP[®]) from the College for Financial Planning in Denver, Colorado. Those requirements include having completed a Board-Registered educational program, having at least three years of qualifying work experience in the personal financial planning area, and passing the CFP[®] Certification Examination. The exam, which is administered over two days, tests a financial planner's ability to apply his or her knowledge to specific client situations. Individuals who become certified must complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP[®] marks.

Samuel earned the Accredited Investment Fiduciary[®] (AIF[®]) designation in 2018. The AIF designation certifies that Samuel has specialized knowledge of fiduciary standards of care and his client's application to the investment management process. To receive the AIF designation, Samuel completed a training program, successfully passed a comprehensive, closed-book final examination under the supervision of a proctor and agree to abide by the AIF Code of Ethics. In order to maintain the AIF designation, Samuel will annually renew his affirmation of the AIF Code of Ethics and complete six hours of continuing education credits.
