Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisors are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. There are no applicable disclosures to report for William Brisard.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

While serving as a Financial Advisor of Diversified, LLC is William's primary business activity that takes up the vast majority of his business time, William is also engaged in other business activities.

William is licensed as an insurance agent with various insurance companies. If clients purchase non variable insurance products from William, he may receive separate, yet customary compensation in the form of an insurance commission.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

As noted in Item 4 above, William also earns compensation as an insurance agent.

While William always endeavors to put his clients' interests first and foremost, clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest when making recommendations for these other products or services. To address the potential for a conflict of interest, William makes certain to disclose to clients, any fees or compensation associated with recommended products or services. Clients are provided with applicable product prospectuses and offering materials, which discuss the fees associated with the applicable products. Clients are also asked to sign applicable disclosure documents that point out important product features and fees.

As a fiduciary, William makes product recommendations that he feels are in his clients' best interest and are based on the specific needs and objectives of the client, not the compensation potential of the product.
